It's easy to make friends here

Camp Emerson
An Extraordinary Summer Camp!

Become part of the Emerson family
Welcome to Camp Emerson, our summer home for boys and girls where respect for the individual is the foundation of true friendship.

“We are proud of our reputation for nurturing campers and supporting parents. We do this by taking the time to understand each child before camp and then creating an environment that builds their independence and confidence. The experience unfolds in different ways for each camper. Our program may stimulate creativity, intellectual skills, athletic prowess or all three. For some, camp is about making a friend or feeling part of the group while for others it’s learning to take a risk and try something new.

At Camp Emerson, campers can be themselves, act silly and relax. And in the tradition of camping, we form strong personal bonds and live like a family. We’ve been Directors for a long time. We know the magic of camping – we watch it happen every summer!”

Choice Programs: Total choice for all ages. Design a schedule as unique as you are from over 50 activities. Athletics, Visual Arts, Water Sports, Wilderness, Performing Arts, Cooking and our unique Step Beyond program of intellectually stimulating activities in science and engineering.

Our Campers: Bright, welcoming, kind kids who are good friends to each other and still want to be kids.

Creativity: No one matches our zany special events, “WOWs,” food, and endless fun.

Attention: We know all our campers. We respect them, solicit their ideas and truly care for each one. We rely on you to teach us about your child so we can provide a supportive and loving second home.

Superior Staff: Skilled instructors who are caring, attentive and enjoy playing with the children.

Partnership with Parents: Each family has their own wishes for a successful summer. We listen and work with you to help your child thrive. Your child’s self-esteem and safety are our highest priorities.

Camp Directors
As Directors, we oversee every aspect of camp personally. We are out on campus all day with the campers and staff, managing the details that make the difference. In addition, we hire 100 talented professionals for 220 campers. The ratio in the cabins is 1:4.

Campers say, “There are counselors everywhere!” (We like that!)

Our staff is older than most camps with an average age of 23 in the cabins. There are no junior counselors or CITs at Camp Emerson.

We are extremely selective when it comes to staff. In addition to a rigorous screening process, staff members must demonstrate experience working with children and a commitment to putting the campers first.

Our staff receive a comprehensive pre-camp training where we share insights on each of their campers and then follow it up facilitating cabin dynamics and social interactions daily.

The right camp is a personal choice.

We know that the connection between the family and the Director is key to a successful experience.

Our brochure and website will give you a lot of information but it’s no substitute for talking or meeting in person.
